

Division of Services for People with Disabilities Utah DHS-DSPD	Section 3 Financial Issued: January 2010
Residential Room and Board Fees Effective January 01, 2010	Financial Directive # 2.4

There has been a 0% increase in the Supplemental Security Income (SSI) maintenance fees for persons receiving residential services effective January 01, 2010. The SSI benefit amount has not changed from $674.00.

1. Providers are to update the individual's Community-Based Housing Allowance Program Application for individual's who reside in Residential Habilitation Support Services RHI and RHS and Community Living Support services CLI and CLS to show the division's participation in meeting the provider's room and board shortfalls and to suggest the recipient's share of rental costs effective January 01, 2010 through December 31, 2010. (Note that the Housing and Urban Development fair market rents have been increased effective January 01, 2009 as per Division Directive 1.1) A copy of the revised Community Based Housing Allowance form, for those individuals requiring housing assistance, should be forwarded to the region office in time to be approved prior to payment of the January housing allowance.
2. The individual should have no less than $141.54 per month remaining from their Supplemental Security Income (SSI) funds for personal needs.
3. Each individual should contribute $175.24 per month toward food costs.
4. The provider may charge additional costs, up to the actual amount spent, for those individuals who choose to spend a greater amount of their income toward food. Increased food costs should not decrease monthly personal needs funds below the recommended amount.

SSI Benefits	Rent 	Food	Personal Funds
$674.00	Recipient's Share of Community-Based Allowance	$175.24 ⁶² (Minimum Amount)	$141.54 (Minimum Amount)

 Rent for individuals in the Professional Parent and Host Home programs will remain at $357.22 per month.